

FIG. 3A is a perspective view of a fishing game machine. The machine features a large sign at the top that reads "the price is right" in a stylized font, with a large dollar sign to the left. Below the sign is a digital display showing "$10,000". The main play area is a rectangular screen showing a fishing scene with a boat and two fishermen. The screen is divided into a grid of fish, each with a number. The machine has a coin slot on the left and a coin return button on the right. The bottom of the machine features a banner that reads "the price is right".
